GCC OFFERS ESL EVENING PROGRAM AT GLASSBORO HIGH SCHOOL

Deptford Twp. – Gloucester County College is offering literacy instruction through its English as a Second Language (ESL) program to help South Jersey residents develop language skills.

Through a grant awarded by the New Jersey Department of Labor and Workforce Development and the Gloucester County Workforce Investment Board, GCC is helping residents and others with limited English proficiency develop the skills and knowledge necessary to become active and informed parents, workers, and community members.

Evening classes will be held at Glassboro High School on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m. and run September 29 through December 17. For more information about the ESL program or to register, call (856) 468-5000, ext. 6227. There is a $10 registration fee.

Gloucester County College's 250-acre campus is located on Tanyard Road in Deptford, just off Exit 56 of Route 55.
